

STILL

Meaning: In this context, 'still' means not moving or making a sound; calm and tranquil.

1. She sat still, lost in thought as the world around her buzzed with activity.
2. Despite the chaos outside, the room felt still and peaceful, a refuge from the storm.
3. He was still convinced that he could solve the puzzle, even after multiple failed attempts.
4. Although the sun had set, the sky was still aglow with shades of pink and orange.
5. The dog lay still on the porch, basking in the warm afternoon sun.
6. She was still waiting for the bus, even though it was late.
7. Despite the chaos around him, he remained still and focused.
8. The lake was so calm that it looked still as glass in the early morning light.
9. Even after all these years, she still remembers the song they used to sing together.
10. He tried to stay still for the photograph, but his excitement was hard to contain.
11. The lake was still, reflecting the colors of the sunset perfectly.
12. Despite the chaos around her, she remained still, deep in thought.
13. He still remembers the day they first met, as if it were yesterday.
14. The old clock in the corner ticks still, a reminder of time passing.
15. Even after all these years, she still feels a connection to her childhood home.
16. She still enjoys reading novels despite her busy schedule.
17. The baby was still sleeping when I checked on him.
18. Even after all these years, he still remembers her birthday.
19. The lake was still and calm, reflecting the mountains around it.
20. She stood still, listening to the sound of the wind rustling through the trees.
21. She stood still, listening intently to the sounds of the night.
22. Despite the chaos around him, he remained still in his resolve.

23. The lake was still, reflecting the clear blue sky above.
24. Even after all these years, she still remembers their first meeting.
25. He wanted to move on, but his heart still held on to the past.
26. The lake was still in the early morning light, reflecting the mountains perfectly.
27. Despite the chaos around her, she remained still, focusing on her breath.
28. He was still hopeful that things would improve despite the challenges he faced.
29. Even after all these years, she still remembers the taste of her grandmother's cookies.
30. The baby slept soundly, her small frame barely moving as she lay still in the crib.
31. She sat still in the park, watching the children play.
32. Despite the storm outside, he remained still, lost in thought.
33. The lake was still, reflecting the stars like a mirror.
34. He tried to stay still during the meditation, but his mind kept wandering.
35. She still remembers the day they first met.
36. The river was still, reflecting the colors of the sunset.
37. Even after all this time, he still feels a connection to her.
38. Though it rained all night, the ground is still dry.
39. I still can't believe how quickly the year has gone by.