

STIMULUS

Meaning: Stimulus: something that incites or promotes activity or increased action, especially in a creative or economic context.

1. The bright colors of the painting served as a powerful stimulus for her creativity.
2. In economics, a government stimulus package aims to boost consumer spending and investment.
3. Children learn best when they are exposed to a variety of sensory stimuli in their environment.
4. The psychologist studied how different types of external stimuli can affect human behavior.
5. After the long winter, the arrival of spring was a welcome stimulus for the garden to bloom.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stimulus>