

STINGINESS

Meaning: Stinginess is the quality of being unwilling to spend or share money; extreme frugality or reluctance to give.

1. Her stinginess often surprised her friends, who knew she earned a generous salary.
2. Despite his wealth, his stinginess made him the least popular member of the community.
3. The stinginess of the organization became evident when they refused to fund the charity event.
4. She was criticized for her stinginess, especially when it came to sharing resources with her team.
5. Even a small gesture of kindness from him would have been better than his usual stinginess.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stinginess>