

STINGY

Meaning: Stingy: unwilling to give or spend; miserly.

1. His stingy nature made it difficult for him to maintain friendships.
2. Despite his wealth, he was known for being quite stingy with donations to charity.
3. She always found a way to avoid sharing the bill, earning a reputation for being stingy.
4. The stingy manager refused to give raises, even when the team exceeded their targets.
5. In an effort to save money, he had become so stingy that he wouldn't buy a cup of coffee.
6. His stingy attitude made it difficult for his friends to rely on him during tough times.
7. She considered him stingy because he never offered to share his food with anyone.
8. Despite his wealth, he was known for being stingy and rarely donated to charity.
9. The stingy company refused to give its employees a raise, despite their hard work.
10. Her stingy habits extended to every aspect of her life, from groceries to gifts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stingy>