

STINK

Meaning: STINK (verb): To emit a strong, unpleasant odor.

1. The garbage left out in the sun began to stink, attracting flies.
2. After the rain, the wet dog came inside and filled the room with a strong stink.
3. He couldn't understand why his gym bag always had a persistent stink after workouts.
4. The fish market had an overwhelming stink that made some customers hesitate to enter.
5. Despite their best efforts, the old basement still had a faint stink of mildew.
6. The garbage had been left out for days, and the smell began to stink.
7. After the rain, the wet dog returned home, leaving a trail of stink behind him.
8. She wrinkled her nose in disgust as the stink of the fish market hit her.
9. Even after scrubbing the kitchen, the lingering stink of burnt food remained.
10. The old socks in the gym bag were so rank they could make anyone's eyes water with stink.
11. The garbage left outside for days began to stink, attracting flies and other pests.
12. After the rain, the wet dog came inside and the whole house started to stink.
13. His cooking experiment went horribly wrong, and the kitchen was filled with a terrible stink.
14. The sulfur from the nearby industrial plant made the air around the town constantly stink.
15. She wrinkled her nose at the stink of the old fish market as she walked by.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stink>