

STINTEDNESS

Meaning: Stintedness refers to the quality of being excessively frugal or sparing, especially in sharing resources or expressing creativity.

1. Her stintedness in sharing resources was evident when the team struggled to complete the project.
2. The artist's stintedness with colors left her paintings feeling lifeless and uninspired.
3. Despite his wealth, his streak of stintedness made it difficult for him to maintain lasting friendships.
4. They criticized the government's stintedness in funding public education, which left many schools under-resourced.
5. Stintedness in affection can lead to misunderstandings and hurt feelings in a relationship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stintedness>