

STINTER

Meaning: A stinter is a person who is stingy or reluctant to give or spend, especially in the context of charitable donations.

1. The philanthropist was often criticized for being a stinter, as his donations were far less generous than his wealth suggested.
2. Despite his wealth, he was known to be a stinter, rarely contributing more than the bare minimum to any cause.
3. Her reputation as a stinter made it difficult for her to build trust with her colleagues in the fundraising community.
4. Even though he had the means to help, his stinter ways left many in his circle feeling neglected.
5. The stinter's reluctance to invest in new projects ultimately stifled innovation within the company.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stinter>