

STIPEND

Meaning: A stipend is a fixed, regular payment made to support an individual's living expenses or work-related costs, often associated with education or internships.

1. The university offers a generous stipend to graduate students to support their research endeavors.
2. Many internships provide a modest stipend to help cover living expenses during the program.
3. After receiving a stipend from the government, she was able to focus entirely on her studies.
4. He was grateful for the monthly stipend that allowed him to pursue his passion for art without financial stress.
5. The fellowship included a stipend that enabled her to travel and gain valuable experience abroad.
6. The university offered a generous stipend to graduate students to support their research endeavors.
7. After completing the internship, she received a stipend that helped cover her living expenses.
8. Many artists rely on a stipend from their patrons to pursue their creative projects without financial stress.
9. The fellowship program provided a monthly stipend, allowing participants to focus on their studies without worrying about bills.
10. He was thrilled to learn that his summer internship came with a stipend, making it easier to manage his finances.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stipend>