

STIPENDIARIAN

Meaning: A stipendian is a person who receives a stipend, typically for academic or research purposes.

1. The stipendian was grateful for the financial support that allowed him to pursue his academic dreams.
2. As a stipendian, she dedicated her time to research while receiving funding from the university.
3. Many stipendians struggle to balance their studies with the demands of part-time work.
4. The stipendian program at the institution has attracted talented individuals from diverse backgrounds.
5. After years of study, the stipendian was finally able to showcase her groundbreaking research at an international conference.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stipendiarian>