

STIPENDIARY

Meaning: Stipendiary refers to a position or role that provides a stipend or salary, typically to support work or research.

1. The university offered a stipendary position to support research in environmental science.
2. As a stipendary intern, she received a monthly allowance to cover her living expenses.
3. His stipendary role allowed him to focus entirely on his studies without the burden of a part-time job.
4. The organization advertised a stipendary fellowship aimed at recent graduates interested in public policy.
5. She appreciated the stipendary grant, which enabled her to pursue her passion for art without financial strain.
6. The stipendary positions offered by the university attracted many talented applicants.
7. As a stipendary intern, she received financial support while gaining valuable work experience.
8. His stipendary role allowed him to focus on his research without the burden of financial stress.
9. The stipendary nature of the fellowship made it accessible to a broader range of candidates.
10. In her stipendary capacity, she was responsible for managing the budget for student activities.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stipendiary>