

STIPITIFORM

Meaning: Stipitiform describes a structure that resembles or is shaped like a stipe, often evoking a sense of organic growth, particularly in botanical or fungal contexts.

1. The artist used a stipitiform structure in her sculpture to evoke a sense of organic growth.
2. In botany, the term stipitiform refers to the stipe-like appearance of certain fungal species.
3. The researcher noted that the stipitiform characteristic of the specimen distinguished it from its relatives.
4. During the lecture, the professor explained the significance of stipitiform features in certain plants.
5. The stipitiform design of the chair provided both elegance and stability in the modern living room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stipitiform>