

STIPULARY

Meaning: STIPULARY: relating to or characterized by stipulations or specific terms outlined in a contract or agreement.

1. The stipulatory terms of the contract were clearly defined to avoid any misunderstandings.
2. Her stipulatory agreement included clauses that protected both parties' interests.
3. In negotiations, the stipulatory conditions must be agreed upon before finalizing the deal.
4. The stipulatory framework established guidelines for collaboration between the two organizations.
5. He emphasized the importance of adhering to the stipulatory obligations outlined in the proposal.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stipulary>