

STIPULATOR

Meaning: A stipulator is a person or entity that specifies conditions or terms in a contract or agreement.

1. The stipulator of the contract insisted on clear terms to avoid any misunderstandings.
2. As the stipulator in the agreement, her role was crucial in defining the responsibilities of each party.
3. In legal disputes, the stipulator must ensure that all conditions are met before finalizing the deal.
4. The stipulator's guidelines provided a framework that helped streamline the negotiation process.
5. During the meeting, the stipulator emphasized the importance of adhering to the outlined deadlines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stipulator>