

STIR

Meaning: STIR (verb): To mix or agitate a substance, often to blend ingredients, or to provoke an emotional response or enthusiasm.

1. She decided to stir the pot to ensure the ingredients mixed well.
2. The teacher's inspiring words began to stir a passion for learning in her students.
3. As the winds picked up, the leaves began to stir, creating a beautiful dance in the air.
4. He felt a sudden urge to stir the memories of his childhood while looking through old photographs.
5. To make the chocolate sauce, remember to stir it continuously to prevent burning.
6. She decided to stir the pot to ensure the soup was evenly heated.
7. The sudden announcement stirred excitement among the crowd.
8. He used a spoon to stir the mixture until it was smooth and creamy.
9. The news of their engagement stirred up old memories for her.
10. As the wind began to stir the leaves, a sense of calm washed over him.
11. She used a wooden spoon to stir the soup as it simmered on the stove.
12. The unexpected announcement stirred excitement among the students.
13. He felt a stir of anxiety as he approached the podium to speak.
14. The gentle breeze began to stir the leaves, creating a soft rustling sound.
15. Her words were enough to stir up old memories he thought he had forgotten.