

STIRK

Meaning: STIRK: A young male bovine, especially one that has not yet been castrated, typically under the age of two years.

1. The farmer was proud of his stirk, raising it to become a strong bull.
2. As they walked through the fields, they spotted a stirk grazing peacefully.
3. In the village fair, the best stirk was awarded a shiny ribbon.
4. Young farmers often learn about livestock management by caring for their stirk.
5. The stirk's growth was impressive, showcasing the benefits of proper nutrition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stirk>