

STIRP

Meaning: STIRP: A line of descent or lineage, particularly in genealogical contexts, representing a branch of a family tree.

1. The genealogist traced the family stirp back several generations.
2. Each stirp in the lineage chart represented a different branch of the family tree.
3. The historian emphasized the importance of documenting each stirp for future research.
4. Understanding the stirp of noble ancestry can provide insight into one's heritage.
5. As she compiled the data, she focused on the stirp that connected the two families.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stirp>