

STIRPICULTURE

Meaning: Stirpiculture is the agricultural practice of cultivating specific plant varieties through selective breeding and seed selection to enhance yield and resilience.

1. Stirpiculture is an ancient agricultural practice that focuses on the cultivation of specific plant varieties.
2. Farmers engaged in stirpiculture often select seeds from the most resilient plants to ensure higher yields.
3. The study of stirpiculture has gained renewed interest among researchers exploring sustainable farming methods.
4. By implementing stirpiculture techniques, communities can promote biodiversity and enhance food security.
5. Many indigenous cultures have relied on stirpiculture to preserve their unique agricultural heritage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stirpiculture>