

STIRRUP

Meaning: A stirrup is a loop or ring, typically made of metal or leather, attached to a saddle that supports a rider's foot while mounted on a horse.

1. She adjusted her stirrup before mounting the horse for the ride.
2. The old saddle featured beautiful leather stirrups that were worn from years of use.
3. He kicked his feet up into the stirrups as he settled into the saddle.
4. After the fall, she checked to ensure the stirrup was still securely attached.
5. The stirrup design allows riders to maintain better control and comfort while riding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stirrup>