

STIRT

Meaning: 'STIRT' (verb): To move or stir in a lively, whimsical, or erratic manner.

1. The wind caused the leaves to stirt around the garden in a whimsical dance.
2. As the boat began to stirt on the waves, the fishermen quickly adjusted their nets.
3. The sudden noise made her heart stirt with excitement and anticipation.
4. He watched the flames stirt in the fireplace, casting shadows on the walls.
5. With each passing moment, the energy in the room began to stirt with vibrant possibilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stirt>