

STITCH

Meaning: Stitch (verb): To join or repair fabric or tissue by sewing or using a needle and thread.

1. She decided to stitch a beautiful pattern onto the fabric for her quilt.
2. The doctor needed to stitch the wound closed to promote healing.
3. During the sewing class, we learned how to stitch different types of embroidery.
4. He felt a stitch in his side after running for too long without stopping.
5. The artist used a variety of threads to stitch a vibrant mural on the wall.
6. She carefully used a needle and thread to stitch up the tear in her dress.
7. The doctor had to stitch the wound after the accident to ensure proper healing.
8. With each stitch, the quilt began to take shape, showcasing her creative design.
9. He learned how to stitch various patterns as part of his sewing class.
10. The old book had a broken spine that needed a few stitches to keep it together.
11. The tailor carefully added a stitch to the hem of the dress.
12. After a long day of hiking, she found a stitch in her backpack had come undone.
13. He felt a sharp pain in his side, as if he had pulled a stitch during his workout.
14. The artist used colored thread to create a beautiful stitch pattern on the canvas.
15. She decided to stitch the torn seam of her favorite jeans instead of throwing them away.