

STITCHEL

Meaning: Stichel (noun): A small bag or pouch, often used for carrying personal items or treasures.

1. The old stichel hung from the hook by the door, filled with forgotten treasures.
2. As he rummaged through the stichel, a faded letter slipped out, revealing a long-lost memory.
3. She carried her art supplies in a worn stichel, a reminder of her college days.
4. The leather stichel had been passed down through generations, each scratch telling a story.
5. He reached into the stichel, pulling out a tangle of yarn and a pair of knitting needles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stichel>