

STIVE

Meaning: 'STIVE' refers to a storage space or area, particularly in a barn, used for holding harvested crops or materials.

1. The stive of the old barn was filled with dust motes dancing in the sunlight.
2. After hours of hard work, they finally completed the stive, ready for the harvest.
3. She watched as the stive slowly filled with freshly cut hay, its sweet scent filling the air.
4. In the quiet village, the stive became a gathering place for neighbors sharing stories.
5. Their laughter echoed in the stive, a reminder of joyful days spent together.
6. Stive is often used to describe the efforts someone makes to achieve a particular goal.
7. She stive to improve her skills, dedicating countless hours to practice.
8. Despite his stive to remain calm, the pressure of the situation weighed heavily on him.
9. The team's stive in the face of adversity ultimately led to their success.
10. In every endeavor, his stive to excel was evident in the quality of his work.
11. The old barn was stive with the scent of hay and livestock.
12. In the stive atmosphere of the kitchen, the aroma of spices filled the air.
13. As the storm approached, the sky became stive with dark, swirling clouds.
14. He felt stive with anticipation as he waited for the concert to begin.
15. The stive room was filled with laughter and the clinking of glasses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stive>