

STOCKJOBING

Meaning: Stockjobbing refers to the practice of speculating on the buying and selling of stocks for profit, often involving high risk and potential market manipulation.

1. Stockjobbing was often viewed with suspicion, as it involved speculating on the fluctuations of market prices.
2. Many investors shun stockjobbing due to its association with high risk and market manipulation.
3. The rise of technology has transformed stockjobbing, allowing traders to execute deals in milliseconds.
4. Regulatory bodies have implemented strict guidelines to curb unethical practices in stockjobbing.
5. During the economic boom, stockjobbing became a popular way for individuals to make quick profits.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stockjobbing>