

STOIC

Meaning: Stoic: enduring pain or hardship without showing feelings or complaining; emotionally resilient.

1. Despite the chaos around him, he remained stoic, calmly facing whatever challenges arose.
2. Her stoic expression betrayed none of the pain she felt inside after the sudden loss.
3. The stoic philosophy teaches us to accept fate and maintain our composure in the face of adversity.
4. Even in the midst of criticism, he held a stoic demeanor, unfazed by the opinions of others.
5. As the storm raged on, the old sailor stayed stoic, trusting in his years of experience to guide him safely home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stoic>