

STOICAL

Meaning: Stoical: enduring pain or hardship without showing feelings or complaining; characterized by a calm and unflinching demeanor.

1. Her stoical demeanor in the face of adversity impressed everyone around her.
2. Despite the pain of his injury, he remained stoical, refusing to show weakness.
3. The soldier's stoical acceptance of his fate was a testament to his training and resolve.
4. She approached the challenges of life with a stoical attitude, never letting emotions dictate her actions.
5. His stoical response to the news was surprising, as many expected him to be more reactive.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stoical>