

STOMACH

Meaning: Stomach (noun): the organ in the body that digests food and is also associated with feelings of anxiety or discomfort.

1. She felt a knot in her stomach as she waited for the interview to begin.
2. After the long hike, I realized my stomach was growling for some food.
3. He couldn't believe how quickly his stomach reacted to the delicious aroma of the freshly baked bread.
4. The doctor explained that stress could often lead to stomach pains and discomfort.
5. She took a deep breath to calm her stomach before stepping onto the stage.
6. The aroma of freshly baked bread made her stomach growl with hunger.
7. He felt a knot in his stomach as he prepared for the important presentation.
8. After eating too much at dinner, he complained of a heavy stomach ache.
9. Yoga can be beneficial for both the mind and stomach, promoting relaxation and digestion.
10. Her excitement was palpable, filling her stomach with butterflies before the big event.
11. The rich aroma of the freshly baked bread made my stomach growl in anticipation.
12. After the intense workout, she felt a mix of fatigue and a slight ache in her stomach.
13. He couldn't help but laugh when he saw his dog's stomach round with treats.
14. The doctor explained that stress can often manifest as a tightness in the stomach.
15. She placed her hand on her stomach, feeling the first gentle kicks of her baby.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stomach>