

STOMACHER

Meaning: A stomacher is a decorative triangular piece of fabric worn at the front of a dress, often embellished with embroidery, that enhances the garment's elegance.

1. The vintage dress was adorned with a beautiful stomacher that added elegance to her appearance.
2. In historical fashion, a stomacher often featured intricate embroidery and was a focal point of attire.
3. She carefully inserted the stomacher into the bodice, ensuring it lay flat against her corset.
4. At the museum, the exhibit showcased various stomachers from different eras, highlighting their decorative purposes.
5. The actress wore a stunning gown with a jeweled stomacher that captivated the audience during the performance.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stomacher>