

STONE-COLD

Meaning: Stone-cold: completely devoid of warmth or emotion; unfeelingly still or silent.

1. The wind howled through the empty streets, leaving a stone-cold silence in its wake.
2. She felt a stone-cold dread settle in her stomach as the truth began to unfold.
3. After hours of waiting, the stone-cold coffee was a disappointing reminder of her busy morning.
4. The detective's stone-cold demeanor made it difficult for anyone to read his thoughts.
5. His stone-cold stare seemed to pierce right through her, making her feel utterly exposed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stone-cold>