

STONE-DEAD

Meaning: Stone-dead: completely inoperative or lifeless.

1. The old car sat in the driveway, stone-dead and covered in rust.
2. After the storm, the power went out, leaving the entire town stone-dead in darkness.
3. The party ended abruptly when the music stopped, leaving everyone feeling stone-dead in the silence.
4. When I checked the garden in the morning, the flowers looked stone-dead after the frost.
5. The investigation revealed that the ancient creature was stone-dead long before it was discovered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stone-dead>