

STONE

Meaning: STONE (noun): A hard, solid nonmetallic mineral matter, often used in construction or found in nature, such as a small rock or boulder.

1. The ancient ruins were constructed with massive stone blocks that had withstood the test of time.
2. He picked up a smooth stone from the riverbank and tossed it into the water with a satisfying plop.
3. She admired the intricate carvings on the stone façade of the historic cathedral.
4. In the garden, a stone path wound its way through vibrant flowers and lush greenery.
5. The archaeologists discovered artifacts made of stone, revealing insights into the civilization's daily life.
6. The ancient ruins were built from large blocks of stone, each one telling a story of the past.
7. As the river flowed, it smoothed the rough edges of the stones lining its banks.
8. She picked up a small stone and tossed it across the lake, watching the ripples spread.
9. In her garden, the artist arranged colorful pebbles among the lush greenery to create a tranquil space.
10. The archaeologists discovered a stone tablet inscribed with mysterious symbols buried beneath the earth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stone>