

STONILY

Meaning: STONILY: adverb describing a manner of being unresponsive or emotionless, often characterized by a lack of expression or reaction.

1. She stared at him stonily, refusing to show any emotion.
2. The audience sat stonily, processing the shocking twist in the play.
3. He responded stonily, his face a mask of indifference to the criticism.
4. She walked away stonily, determined not to let her feelings be seen.
5. The cat looked at me stonily, unimpressed by my attempts to win its affection.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stonily>