

STONINESS

Meaning: Stoniness refers to the quality of being emotionally unresponsive or impassive.

1. The stoniness of her expression revealed nothing of her true feelings.
2. His stoniness in the face of criticism was both admirable and frustrating.
3. Despite the stoniness of the landscape, wildflowers managed to bloom in the cracks.
4. The stoniness of the old castle gave it an air of mystery and permanence.
5. In moments of grief, his stoniness often masked the turmoil he felt inside.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stoniness>