

STOOP

Meaning: STOOP (verb): to bend one's body downward, typically by bending the knees; (noun): a small porch or staircase leading to the entrance of a building.

1. She had to stoop down to pick up the fallen book from the floor.
2. The old man would often sit on the stoop, watching the world go by.
3. As the tall child grew, he found it increasingly difficult to stoop to tie his shoes.
4. With a gentle smile, she asked him to stoop so she could whisper a secret.
5. The cat liked to perch on the stoop, soaking up the warm afternoon sun.
6. She decided to stoop down to tie her shoelaces.
7. The children gathered around the old man sitting on the stoop.
8. He had to stoop to fit under the low doorway.
9. After a long day, she found comfort in sitting on the stoop with a book.
10. The cat watched the world go by from its favorite spot on the stoop.
11. He decided to stoop down to tie his shoelaces before continuing his run.
12. The old man used to sit on the stoop, greeting neighbors as they passed by.
13. She had to stoop low to pick up the fallen book from the floor.
14. In the fading light, they could see the children playing on the stoop of the brownstone.
15. To catch a glimpse of the parade, he had to stoop to peer through the crowd.
16. The children gathered around the stoop, eagerly waiting for the ice cream truck.
17. He had to stoop to fit through the low doorway of the old cottage.
18. After hours of hiking, they took a break on the stoop of a quaint cabin.
19. She watched the sunset from her stoop, feeling the cool evening breeze.
20. She decided to stoop down to tie her shoelaces before continuing her walk.
21. The old man would often sit on his stoop, watching the world go by.
22. To get a better look at the flowers, she had to stoop low to the ground.

23. As the kids played on the sidewalk, their laughter echoed off the stoop of the house.
24. He tried to stoop gracefully, but ended up losing his balance and stumbling.
25. The old man would often stoop to pick up coins from the sidewalk.
26. In the garden, he had to stoop to admire the delicate flowers.
27. As she spoke, he noticed her habit of stooping her shoulders in shyness.
28. The child had to stoop low to reach the toy that rolled under the couch.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stoop>