

STORK-BILLED

Meaning: Stork-billed refers to a type of kingfisher characterized by its large, prominent beak, commonly found in wetlands and known for its striking appearance.

1. The stork-billed kingfisher perched on the branch, scanning the water for its next meal.
2. With its striking beak, the stork-billed species is a magnificent sight in the wetlands.
3. During our trip to the mangroves, we were lucky enough to spot a stork-billed bird in its natural habitat.
4. The stork-billed heron is known for its distinctive appearance and graceful movements.
5. Photographers flock to the area, hoping to capture the elusive stork-billed kingfisher in action.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stork-billed>