

STORY-TELLING

Meaning: Story-telling is the art of conveying narratives or tales, often engaging an audience through imaginative and expressive language.

1. Story-telling has been an essential part of human culture since ancient times.
2. The art of story-telling captivates audiences and transports them to different worlds.
3. In her workshop, she demonstrated the power of story-telling to connect with others.
4. His story-telling skills made even the most mundane events seem enchanting.
5. Story-telling can be a powerful tool for educating and inspiring young minds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/story-telling>