

STOUP

Meaning: A stoup is a basin or receptacle, often found at the entrance of a church, used for holding holy water for the congregation to use for blessings or rituals.

1. The stoup at the entrance of the church was filled with holy water for the congregation.
2. She dipped her fingers into the stoup and made the sign of the cross before entering the sanctuary.
3. The ornate stoup, carved from marble, was a stunning centerpiece of the chapel's interior.
4. During the ceremony, the priest blessed the stoup, symbolizing purification and new beginnings.
5. Visitors often paused to admire the intricate designs of the stoup that adorned the old cathedral.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stoup>