

STOVEPIPE

Meaning: Stovepipe: a vertical pipe used to convey smoke and gases from a fireplace or stove to the outside atmosphere.

1. The old house had a rusty stovepipe protruding from the roof, a remnant of its long-abandoned fireplace.
2. The stovepipe was clogged with soot, requiring a thorough cleaning before the winter season.
3. He fashioned a stovepipe hat for the party, drawing inspiration from classic films.
4. As the temperature dropped, they gathered around the wood stove, its stovepipe channeling warmth into the room.
5. She carefully measured the lengths of stovepipe needed to connect the furnace to the chimney.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stovepipe>