

STOWRE

Meaning: To stowre means to arrange or pack items neatly and securely for storage or transport.

1. The sailor decided to stowre the sails neatly after the storm passed.
2. As we prepared for our trip, we had to stowre our luggage carefully in the trunk.
3. After the picnic, everyone helped to stowre the leftover food in the cooler.
4. The campers were instructed to stowre their gear before the rain began to fall.
5. He managed to stowre the fishing rods in the back of the truck without any hassle.
6. The sailors worked tirelessly to stowre the cargo securely before the storm hit.
7. As the journey progressed, they had to stowre their supplies more efficiently to save space.
8. He learned to stowre his tools in a way that made them easy to access when needed.
9. The captain instructed the crew to stowre everything properly to avoid chaos on deck.
10. After unpacking, she took her time to stowre the items in her new home with care.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stowre>