

STRABOTOMY

Meaning: Strabotomy is a surgical procedure that involves repositioning the eye muscles to correct strabismus and improve eye alignment.

1. Strabotomy is a surgical procedure often considered for correcting strabismus in patients.
2. The ophthalmologist explained that strabotomy involves repositioning the eye muscles to achieve better alignment.
3. After thorough examination, the doctor recommended strabotomy as a potential solution for the patient's misaligned eyes.
4. Many parents are apprehensive about strabotomy, but the benefits can significantly improve a child's vision.
5. Post-operative care following strabotomy is crucial for ensuring optimal recovery and visual outcomes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strabotomy>