

STRAINING

Meaning: Straining refers to the act of exerting effort or stretching beyond normal limits to achieve a goal or perceive something.

1. She was straining to hear the soft whispers coming from the next room.
2. The athlete was straining under the intense pressure of the competition.
3. He was straining to lift the heavy box, beads of sweat forming on his forehead.
4. Straining to maintain her composure, she took a deep breath before speaking.
5. The team was straining to complete the project before the deadline loomed closer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/straining>