

STRAMINEOUS

Meaning: Stramineous refers to having a straw-like or fibrous texture, often used to describe materials or surfaces resembling straw.

1. The stramineous fibers of the plant made it ideal for weaving baskets.
2. In the dim light of the forest, the stramineous texture of the fallen leaves was barely noticeable.
3. Botanists often study stramineous grasses for their unique adaptations to dry environments.
4. She admired the stramineous hue of the paper, which gave her artwork a rustic charm.
5. The stramineous appearance of the old thatched roof added a sense of history to the cottage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stramineous>