

STRANGULATION

Meaning: Strangulation is the act of constricting the neck, typically by pressure, leading to restricted airflow and potentially resulting in serious injury or death.

1. The detective discovered signs of strangulation on the victim's neck.
2. Strangulation can lead to serious injuries, including brain damage and death.
3. During the trial, the evidence of strangulation was a key factor in the prosecution's case.
4. She recounted the terrifying moment when she felt the pressure of strangulation tightening around her throat.
5. The medical examiner noted that strangulation can leave distinctive marks on the skin.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strangulation>