

STRATH

Meaning: Strath: a wide, flat valley, typically formed by glacial activity, often characterized by fertile land and scenic beauty.

1. The strath was a picturesque valley, surrounded by lush green hills and sparkling streams.
2. They decided to take a stroll through the strath, enjoying the tranquility and beauty of nature.
3. In the heart of the strath, the local community held an annual festival celebrating their rich heritage.
4. The ancient ruins perched on the edge of the strath whispered stories of a long-lost civilization.
5. As they hiked deeper into the strath, the sound of rushing water created a soothing backdrop to their adventure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strath>