

STRATIFY

Meaning: To stratify means to arrange or classify data or individuals into different layers or groups based on specific characteristics or criteria.

1. Researchers often stratify data to ensure that various sub-groups are represented in the analysis.
2. The committee decided to stratify the applicants based on their educational backgrounds.
3. To understand the impact of the policy, we need to stratify the results according to age and income level.
4. In order to effectively target marketing efforts, companies often stratify their customer base.
5. The study aimed to stratify participants by their health conditions to better assess treatment outcomes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stratify>