

STRAY

Meaning: Stray (adjective): having wandered away from home or from a proper place, often referring to animals that are lost or abandoned.

1. The dog wandered off and became a stray in the busy streets of the city.
2. She found a stray cat hiding under her porch and decided to take it in.
3. It's easy to stray from the path when you don't have a clear direction in life.
4. They were warned not to stray too far from the campsite after dark.
5. Stray thoughts often interrupt my concentration during meditation.
6. The dog wandered off from its owner and began to stray into the busy street.
7. After the storm, several stray branches cluttered the yard, needing to be cleared away.
8. She often saw a stray cat lurking around her garden, looking for food.
9. The children were warned not to stray too far from the playground while they played.
10. His thoughts began to stray from the lecture, drifting to plans for the weekend.
11. The dog wandered off from its owner and became a stray on the busy streets.
12. She found a stray cat shivering in the alley and decided to take it home.
13. It's heartbreaking to see so many stray animals in need of care and shelter.
14. His thoughts began to stray as he listened to the monotonous lecture.
15. The lost child was found after a long search, wandering stray in the park.
16. The stray dog wandered the streets, searching for food and shelter.
17. After the storm, a stray branch from the tree landed in our backyard.
18. She decided to adopt a stray kitten that had been meowing outside her window.
19. The hiker followed the trail but soon found himself on a stray path that led him off course.
20. He often felt his thoughts would stray when he tried to concentrate on his work.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stray>