

STREPENT

Meaning: Strepent (adjective): characterized by a tense, strained, or awkward atmosphere, often due to conflict or discomfort.

1. The strepent atmosphere in the room made it clear that tensions were running high.
2. After the argument, a strepent silence fell over the group as they avoided eye contact.
3. Her strepent demeanor betrayed the anxiety she felt about the upcoming presentation.
4. He spoke with a strepent tone, revealing his frustration with the ongoing delays.
5. The strepent look on his face indicated that he was not pleased with the decision made.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strepent>