

STREWING

Meaning: STREWING: The act of scattering or spreading something, such as objects or materials, over an area.

1. The children were strewed about the playground, playing and laughing under the sun.
2. She was strewed with flowers as she walked down the aisle, creating a beautiful path.
3. Leaves were strewed across the ground, painting a vibrant tapestry of autumn colors.
4. He found the notes strewed across his desk, a chaotic reminder of his busy week.
5. The artist enjoyed strowing paint across the canvas, allowing spontaneity to guide her creativity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strewing>