

STRICTION

Meaning: Striction refers to the abnormal narrowing or constriction of a passage or vessel in the body, often leading to restricted flow or function.

1. The doctors explained that the striction in her blood vessels was causing her high blood pressure.
2. After years of heavy smoking, he developed a striction in his airways that made breathing difficult.
3. The engineer noted that the striction of the pipeline could lead to increased pressure and potential leaks.
4. In yoga, it's crucial to avoid striction of the muscles to prevent injury and promote flexibility.
5. The striction observed in the plant's growth was attributed to the lack of proper nutrients in the soil.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/striction>