

STRID

Meaning: Strid: a narrow, often turbulent stretch of a river or stream, typically characterized by the sound of flowing water.

1. The strid of the river was a soothing sound as we sat by the banks.
2. He noticed a strid in the distance, a sign of wildlife stirring in the underbrush.
3. Her strid was confident and bold, commanding attention in the crowded room.
4. As the sun set, the strid of the cicadas filled the warm evening air.
5. The strid of the horse's hooves echoed on the cobblestone street.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/strid>