

STRIDENCY

Meaning: Stridency refers to the quality of being loud, harsh, or forceful in tone, often demanding attention or conveying strong opinions.

1. The stridency of her voice cut through the silence, demanding attention from everyone in the room.
2. Critics often describe the stridency of his arguments as overly aggressive and lacking nuance.
3. The stridency of the debate escalated, with both sides unwilling to compromise on their positions.
4. Listeners were taken aback by the stridency in her tone, which contrasted sharply with her usual calm demeanor.
5. During the meeting, the stridency of the disagreements made it clear that collaboration would be challenging.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/stridency>